About My

Papa!

4-C

This story is about Bengy Carter but I call him Papa. He has been here my whole life. So I am going to tell you about his life. He was born in Cloves New Mexico on March 24, 1960 to Zimmie and Nancy Carter. He has two sisters, he is the middle child. He played baseball and did gymnastics as a kid. He moved to Las Vegas when he was 8. When he was 16 he worked for his dad at a bread factory, he ran the bun ovens for the bun crew which makes hot dog and hamburger buns. He went to Bonanza High School. He was in the first graduating class from this school. He holds the highest batting average at this school. He learned to kickbox and was the light weight champion. He kickboxed for 6 years. He decided he liked being a cowboy and started riding bulls. Bullriding is his favorite sport. He has broke 38 bones, with 2 plates, 9 screws, 7 pins and 4 surgeries. He met my Mimi in 1987. They met at a house party for a friend. They got married in 1990. They had their first child in 1991 his name is T.J, they had their second child in 1992 she is my mom her name is Taylor. They have been married for 32 years. They have two grand kids. When my mom found out I was a girl my Papa said he was moving to the farm that was to many girls. My due date was September 22, 2011 but my Papa said no way I needed a cool birthday he said I would be born on september 10, 2011. He was right and I became his pride and-joy.

My Papa is a cabinet builder. He has been building cabinets for 43 years. He has built cabinets for Liz Taylor, Mike Tyson, and Celine Dion who are all famous people. He builds and installs cabinets for COZZens cabinets now. Now he is going to build cabinets in my new house. This is just part of my Papa's life story. I am grateful to have him in my life.
