My grandma Jennifer is an amazing person and she is so young that sometimes people think she is my mom. Obviously that is not true but sometimes people tell her that she has an amazing daughter and they look at me. It makes me laugh how much she looks like my mom. I love her so much! She is the best!

My grandma has 4 kids, my mom, my aunt Lucy, my uncle Maline, and her eldest, my Aunt Mary-Jane My grandma had my mom when she was only 21! My mom did the same exact thing, except, my mom had her second when she was 30, enough about my mom. Let's get back to the reason for this essay. It's amazing to have such a great grandma.

My grandma owns a RV with her boyfriend and her dog, and yes, my grandma has a boyfriend. Her dog is 13 in human years and 77 or something in dog years! I think my grandma is sweet and she is tough! My grandma was in the air force 15 years ago and she went to Afghanistan once! It was the coolest thing she ever told me. Sadly, she is suffering from cancer, and it melts my heart when I see how much pain she is in.

My grandma loves her family and everyone in our family knows it. My grandma is sweet and loves everyone. She is tough and brave. My grandma loves all and is a saint. On my Great-Great Grandma Missy-Jane's birthday, I put a birthday hat on the angel that holds my great-great grandma's ashes and dance.

I love my grandma so let's stop talking about my great-great grandma. My grandma is fierce and not afraid to take a stand. I want to be just like her someday. She always used to talk all about how she used to fight in the war. It was very exciting! She always used to take me to the pool at whatever campsite she was at. She would take me on roadtrips for weeks, sometimes a month. After my allergies were seeable, she would pack up on claritin and benadryl. I love my grandma! She decided to go to war when she was 33 or 34! She is brave and fierce. I love her so much!! She decides where she wants to go and starts driving. Although she moves a lot, I always talk to her!

My grandma loves me and I love her! She is always sweet and I care for her! I know she cares for me too! She is and always will be awesome! She is also 1 of 15 children. I love her so much and I will never forget all the fun times we had together. She is sweet and amazing. She is beautiful and sweet. She always used to tell me how she used her beauty to help in the war. I didn't believe her because she had a lot of scars from the war. I love my grandma! She is the best in my mind!
