

Ancestor Essay

Avril Flores

Nydia Carolina Samano Barraza

My Grandma Lupita

My ancestor name was Maria Wadalupe Samano. Her nickname is Lupita because is shorter than Maria wadalupe but people that are not part of the family cold her lupe. She was born in the 60's in Mexico culiacan. She has 4 brothers and 1 sister. When she was little her little brother day. she told me that when she was little she lived more with her grandma than we her mom. She loved her grandma so much. Now my grandma is 60 years old and I love her so much. She is the best grandma in the world.

What I have in common wend my ancestor we bolt clean ur house old the day and we not like people to escrim a lot me and my grandma have a lot of common things and we love same the same things. I think I'm her favorite person. Me and my grandma love chilaquiles. They are really really good. She is My favorite person in the world, yess!!!!.

My grandma knows how to make my favorite food. When I was in Mexico the home of my grandma was like my home and my home wasn't like no my home. The home of my grandma was next to the home of my concerts and in front the home of my favorite aunt it was osom to go there.

When my grandma was 49 years old she cried a lot because my grandpa was dead because he had a heart attack. I don't know how she felt but I know it will hurt a lot for my grandma.

I wish I was there to make her feel better because I don't want her to cry never.

So dis is the story of My Grandma Lupita