Daughters of Utah Pioneers #402, Chaffin Grist Mill, erected in 1977 by 3 Cedar City Camps,

The Chaffin Grist Mill

In 1866 Louis R. Chaffin, at the request of Apostle Erastus Snow placed a grist mill in Cedar City. His son Henry ran it until 1868 when Louis returned from the Muddy. Adjoining land was purchased in 1875.

Excavation by Alva Matheson proved the dirt floor basement to be 20 x 24 feet.

Lava rock walls had an opening in east end. Upper walls were adobe with wood roof.

Joseph Walker's history states he was working in mill in 1881. Later it was destroyed by fire.
