

The mail from Salt Lake City which should have been received here at about 9 a. m. yesterday, did not reach Cedar City until evening, due, it is stated, to a wreck on the railroad. The south and Parowan stages left without waiting to intersect with the stage from Lund.