

Surveyors at Work.

Word has reached this office that the surveyors of the proposed railroad from Lund to Cedar are at work. Nothing definite has been learned, but efforts will be made to secure reliable news concerning the matter for next issue of the Record.