

Cedar Schools Have Excellent Faculty

Although all school districts of the state have faced extremely difficulty in fill teaching positions for the coming winter, Cedar City schools will have very strong faculties, with every position filled by a well-trained and capable teacher.

Teachers assigned to the various positions in the Cedar City schools, and ready to start work when school opens on September 4th., are as follows:

High School: Ianthus Wright, Principal; Pratt M. Bethers, Mathematics and Co-ordinator; Zoe R. Palmer, Social Science and Dean of Girls; Eardley Madsen, Exact Science; George M. Hess, English and Biological Science; Monte Bailey, Boys' Physical Education; Mrs. Marie Nelson Kruger, Girls' Physical Education; Clarence A. Anderson, Vocation Agriculture; Rela Armstrong, Home Making; Elsie Hansen, Commercial; Wilford Clark, Mathematics and Social Science; A. B. Larson, Instrumental Music; Mrs. Virginia Larson, Vocal Music; Harry Plummer, English and Speech; Reed Cox, Industrial Arts.

Junior High School: L. C. Miles, Principal; E. J. Stucki, Social Science; Elaine Southwick, Girls' Physical Education and Language Arts; Herbert Milne, Physical Education; J. C. Haws, General Science and Mathematics; Mary O. Barlow, Librarian; Elizabeth S. Beckstrom, Language Arts; Reed Cox, Industrial Arts; Arthur Bruhn, Science and Mathematics; Karrol Capner, Home Making; A. B. Larson, Instrumental Music; Frank Van Cott, Vocal Music; Mrs. Donald Bell, Social Science.

Elementary: Oscar Hulet, Principal; Sixth Grade: Morris Buchanan, Ethel Cunningham; Mrs. Gwin Clark. Fifth Grade: Verla Jean Miller; Gwen Anderson, Mrs. Wm. Lmb. Fourth Grade: Leatha Cartwright; Una Oldroyd, Ila Gurr Sherratt. Third Grade: Louise Manning, Elizabeth Foote Colvin, Ethel Madsen, Mary Sargent. Second Grade: Claudia Joseph Forsyth, Helen Stones, Virginia Bauer, Mirmiam Luke. First Grade: Mattie Booth, Be Roberts, Fern Holt, Diane Booth. Supervisor, Mary Nelson.