On subscription to capital stock G. W. Middleton and U. T. Jones. On building E. W. Jones and M. D. Higbee. As far as possible home capital will be secured for the enterprise and if sufficient home subscribers can be secured no outside capital will be solicited. We are informed that outside capital stands ready to step in to the full amount of the stock limit if wanted.

This idea has been in the minds of a number of our citizens for some time past as the need of a bank has long been felt in our city, but they have not had much to say about it. Certain parties have however been making investigations, and have become convinced that it can be made a paying proposition; which is the main thing in all such matters. Another meeting will be held in the Doctor's office next Monday night, to hear the reports of the committees, and the transaction of such other business as may be necessary.

TO FILL A LONG FELT WANT.

A number of our solid citizens met in Dr. Middleton's office last Monday night for the purpose of devising means for the erection of a bank in our city. Among those present were Uriah T. Jones, Lehi W. Jones, Henry Lunt, G. W. Middleton, N. T. Porter, H. Driggs, M. D. Higbee and others. The conclusion was reached that it was time that Cedar had a bank. Fifteen thousand dollars was thought sufficient capital to begin with, and committees
