

CANAAN CHANGES HANDS.

Canaan Cattle Co. Property Reverts Back to B. F. Saunders.

[Dixie Advocate.]

Another change has taken place in the ownership of Canaan ranch, and the cattle of the Canaan Co. B. F. Saunders, the Salt Lake cattle king, who has once or twice before owned the ranch again gets control of the property.

H. H. Harder of this city, and W. M. Fuller of Nebraska have relinquished their title in his favor.

The property has been heavily mortgaged and the consideration is not specifically stated, it is learned that ~~the consideration of the transaction is small~~

Mr. Harder was absent at Tonapa when a Representative of The Advocate called for particulars concerning the deal, and Mrs. Harder preferred to say nothing for publication, though she admitted that her husband has severed all connections with the ownership of the Canaan property. Asked if it was true that they now intended moving away from St. George she said it was also indefinite at this time, that she would rather say nothing about it.

Mr. Harder and his Eastern associates have always so far as we have been able to learn, been honest and straightforward in their dealings. Mr. Harder has been aggressive and enterprising and uniform regret is being expressed that conditions should compel him to retire from the management of Canaan and we trust he will find other business opportunities that will warrant him in remaining with us.
