

This week the people of Cedar received through the mails some neat folders issued by the Newcastle Reclamation Company, and which explain in detail the colonizing scheme they are promoting. The company has a valuable tract of land lying in the southwestern part of Iron County and they are offering it for sale to prospective home-seekers.