

Cedar Breaks District Boy Scout News

NATIONAL PARKS COUNCIL HONORED

The local Boy Scout council received the Gold Star rating issued by the National Council, according to Verne Cooley, district chairman. To receive this honor, all scout's and troops must be registered, which indicates that all troops are active and fulfilling the requirements of the national organization. This is a coveted reward of all the districts and recognition is accompanied by the presentation of a pennant to the district.

PROVO ANNUAL SCOUT MEET DRAWS LOCAL SCOUTERS

A sizeable crowd of scouters and local supporters of scouting were attracted to the annual meet at Provo last Saturday. Those in attendance were, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. George Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Jones, Marvin Jones, Theron Ashcroft, Charles Mosdell and Clifford Knight.

FIRST AID COURSES ANNOUNCED

A first aid course is being organized under the direction of the Red Cross. The value of this study is recognized by all educational institutions; credit being given to those who complete the course at the B. A. C., the L. D. S. Institute and the National Boy Scout organization. The Red Cross also presents a certificate. Theron Ashcroft, H. H. Linford and Verne Cooley will act as instructors.

COURSE IN SCOUTING COMPLETED

The course in Principles of Scoutmastership was completed recently by a large class. Theron Ashcroft acted as chairman, assisted by many educators specializing in different phases of this work. Those completing the course, for which college credit was given, were: Maurice Jones, Sherril Mellor, Newell Wasden, Golden Lang, Arlo Stewart, Wayne Stewart, Jack Woodbury, Marvin Jones, Burns Finlison, Gayle Duncan, Glen Alfred, Glen Graff, Jed Wasden, I. M. Mosdell, Dolph Grimshaw, Arthur Gardner, Easton Sampson, S. M. Peterson, Aubrey Lawrence, Geo. Hess, D. J. Rollins, Joel Barlow, Clair Porter, Clifford Knight, Tom Stephenson, Don Jones, Milton Jolley, Erwin Stephens, Evan Doo-son, Rixey Riddly, Dasil Mathews.

Those registered without credit were Keith Gates, Wallace Sorenson and Burns Finlison.

SWIMMING TESTS PASSER

Another trip to the La Verkin swimming pool by troop 334 of the Second Ward resulted in the completion of requirements for First Class and Merit Badge swimming tests by a number of scouts. The boys were accompanied and given the tests by their Scoutmaster, Verne Jones.

Those making the trek were: Earl Merryweather, Willard Jones, Don Dee Scamon, Garth Webster, Gerald Hess, Edwin Marker, Paul Roberts, Yorke Jones and Thomas Brown.

NEW HARMONY TROOP ACTIVITIES

New Harmony Troop participated 100 percent in a swimming event at the Le Verkin springs. They fully enjoyed a number of water games and the following scouts passed swimming tests, Darce Prince, Merle Prince, Fred Kelly and Lloyd Petty.

Merle and Darce Prince, accompanied by Assistant Scoutmaster, Elmo Englestead, took a fourteen mile hike to the 'old fort Harmony' and returning by way of the Thorley ranch, a very interesting study was experienced.

The New Harmony troop is sponsoring a dance at the Ward Hall on Saturday March 16, there will be a floor show by the scouts and they are raffling off a wolver pig and a excellent quilt—Everyone is invited and a good time is assured.

SUMMIT TROOP GIVES RADIO PROGRAM

Troop 293 of Summit gave an interesting Radio program during the regular Scout Radio hour Wednesday. The boys did a swell job and deserve much praise. Those taking part were:

Alma Lawrence, Reed Lawrence, Kent Hu'et, Llewellyn Chamberlin, Emerald Irom, Rex Hu'et and Lester Dalley acted as the sound effect man. The program was under the direction of Mr. Aubrey Lawrence, Scoutmaster.

BIG SCOUT AND EXPLORER RODEO

Watch the next issue of the IRON COUNTY RECORD and see your Scoutmaster and Explorer Leader about the big Scout and Explorer Rodeo and Court of Honor. Complete plans for this event will be printed in the next issue. Scoutmasters and Explorer Leaders have them a'so.