

REUNION OF SOME OF CEDAR CITY'S SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA COLONY

---

Saturday evening December 30th the following people, former residents of Cedar City, met at the home of S. J. Foster and wife, at 2502 West 78th Place, Inglewood, California, and had an informal get-to-gether and a pleasant time:

Thomas A. Thorley and wife, who are staying for the winter in Long Beach; William H. Pace and wife, his wife the former Kate Middleton; Eva Lunt Mangum, the daughter of Randle Lunt; Dan E. Matheson and wife, who are staying with their daughter Phyllis M. Gilbert and husband; Phyllis M. Gilbert and husband; Mrs. John Fife and daughter, Mrs. Dorothy F. Waugman. John Fife was working that evening at the ship yards. Eugene Christensen and wife, Samuel L. Fife and wife, Ann Pratt, a sister of Jos. B. and Nelson Dalley of Summit, her son-in-law Peter A. Larsen and wife; Violet Urie who is staying for the winter with John Fife and family; Elna Froyd Wilde and Maxine Froyd; Sil Engilman and wife, his wife Ruth being sister to Mr. Foster; Lt. Commander, Milton Morris Foster, recently returned from submarine war service in the South Pacific, and Mrs. Bengta Adams now past ninety-two years of age, and as bright and spry as many women much younger.

After spending the evening in conversation and song, refreshments were served by the hostess and Mrs. Engilman.