

Members of Jones Family Visit Home

Mr. and Mrs. Rass Jones have enjoyed visits from a son, daughter and daughter-in-law during the past week.

Their daughter, Mrs. Zanola Jones Bulloch, who is residing in Salt Lake City since her husband, Robert Bullock has been released from military service, spent the week with her parents.

Visiting here Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jones was their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Quinn Jones of Alameda, California. Quinn, who is in the Naval Air Transport service and was recently placed in command of his ship, is stationed in the Pacific, but makes frequent trips to Alameda in line of duty. Mrs. Jones, the former Miss Georgia Lorentzen, B. A. C. music student, has been playing in the Oakland Symphony orchestra during recent months. She was in Utah to visit with a brother who had returned from overseas duty.

Yorke Jones who has been training in Oswell, New Mexico as a B-29 Flight Officer, spent the week end at home. He was accompanied by friends who visited the parks of this area while here. He was enroute to Salt Lake City to be released from service.
