

Col. Frank Dalley Attends Army Orientation Course

COL. FRANK DALLEY

(ATHNC) — Army National Guard Colonel Frank J. Dalley of Summit completed a special orientation course at the Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kan., Aug. 12.

The course, the last of two given this summer at the college, provides selected reserve component officers with authoritative information concerning current and future U. S. Army trends and developments.

The colonel is regularly assigned as commander of the 145th Artillery Group, an Army National Guard unit. The 47-year-old officer is a 1939 graduate of Utah State University in Logan.

He is regularly employed as a counselor for the Department of Employment Security in Cedar City.
